

This is the transcript of Sonic the Hedgehog: The Movie.

[Scene: Robotropolis.]

Robotnik: Finally! The only thing left to be done is to capture the essential life data from your counterpart, then you will be complete, my Hyper Metal Sonic! When you awaken...

[Hyper Metal Sonic's eyes charge with power]

Robotnik: KILL HIM! [laughs]

[The title screen appears]

Tails: Sonic! I finally finished it! See? Isn't it great? It's a jet propelled bodyboard. Come on, do you wanna try it out?

Sonic: Not right now, thanks.

Tails: All right, I'll go use it myself.

Sonic: Tails is just like a little kid with his new toy. [Beeps the remote and plays the music]

[Tails grunts, revs his engine, his jet blasts. Sonic groans.]

Tails: Whoa! Whoa-aaa! [Screams] Whoa! [Laughs] Weeeee! Hey! Come out here, Sonic! It's okay if you don't swim! You could give it a try.

Sonic: Just don't show off so much that you forget to look where you're going! [sighs, thud] Wha?

[Tails screaming.]

Sonic: It's probably nothing.

Tails: Sonic! Help me, wake up, Sonic. Come on! Help!

Sonic: Huh?

Tails: Hey! Help me! Wake up, Sonic!

Sonic: [Grows] SHUT UP, TAILS!

[Tails screams as he heads toward the camera. Old Man Owl is behind him in his burning rocket. Tails flies up with his bodyboard. Old Man Owl heads towards the screen and flies into the sky. A trail of smoke following him.]

Tails: [Flies above Sonic. Worried] Sonic, are you all right, Sonic?

Sonic: [Rubs his nose] I'm fine, just fine. So, who's that?

Old Man Owl: [Waves] Hi, Sonic! I have some news for you!

[Old Man Owl's rocket flies past Sonic and Tails. A trail of smoke follows him.]

Sonic: [Grunts and scratches his head] Not that old Man again. Count me out.

Tails: [Points in the direction Old Man Owl's rocket went] Sonic, we gotta do something to help him!

Sonic: You're the one who can fly, you do something!

[Sonic turns to his lounging chair that is buried in the sand and tries to get it out. Tails Watches Old Man Owl heading straight towards a wall of a piece of land. Tails gasps.]

Tails: You're no help!

[Sonic trips and lands on his butt.]

Tails: Fine! I can rescue the Old Man all by myself!

[Old Man Owl is still in the plane, about to crash.]

Old Man Owl: Wee hee hee hee!

Tails: Siiir?

Old Man Owl: Oh, it's you Tails! Nice to see you. I have some urgent business with Master Sonic and that's why I'm here today.

Tails: You have more important things to worry about now. Your rocket's on fire!

[Old Man Owl notices the fire and smoke coming from the back of the plane.]

Old Man Owl: WOAH! No wonder it's getting warm!

Tails: Just hold on and keep it going steady. I'll fix it for you!

[The plane's back engine explodes. Tails screams.]

Tails: I'm not gonna give up that easy!

[Tails flies to Old Man Owl, still in the plane. Sonic continues to relax. An explosion impact occurs.]

Old Man Owl: Woo hoo hoo hoo!

Tails: Waah hah ho!

[Tails lands on the plane's wing]

Old Man Owl: Very impressive, Tails.

Tails: Thanks, I had some good practice before on my bodyboard.

Old Man Owl: [laughing] Wah hah hah hah hah, lucky for me!

Tails: Sir? Sir!?

Old Man Owl: Huh?

Tails: Look out!!

Old Man Owl: What are you talking about?

[Owl notices the large rock wall that the plane is about to run into. Tails screams.]

[Pans down to Sonic still on beach.]

Tails: Sonic!!!

[Sonic runs, doing some parkour; Tails screams; Sonic continues running, does a Super Peel Out, spins into a ball, and bashes into the plane; Sonic is launched out of the smoke saving both Tails and Old Man Owl.]

Tails: Oh Sonic, thank you.

Sonic: Mmmm.

[Sonic winks at Tails. They all land safely as Old Man Owl is shocked in horror.]

Sonic: Old man, hey old man!

[Sonic picks up a Crabmeat and puts it back down. The Crabmeat pinches Old Man Owl out of shock.]

Sonic: Old man, those things are dangerous. Stop riding them.

Old Man Owl: [Not making eye contact with Sonic] What are you talking about, Master Sonic? I know how to handle them! I realize I'm a little older now, but back in my day I was quite the racer. Believe me, I was pretty popular with the ladies! [Laughs]

Tails: Mister, did you say you had some urgent business?

Old Man Owl: Oh right, it's a real emergency! You see the President...

[Owl then turns to Tails and Sonic.]

Old Man Owl: [Erratic and unsure] Woooh hoo ho! I-I-I-... A-a-uh... [Relaxed] Ahhhh. The president...

[Sonic and Tails fall to the ground and back up.]

Sonic: He wants us to come to the Presidential House right away!

Old Man Owl: That's it! That's it! Please hurry!!

Sonic: You know it might have been easier if you'd called to tell us that...

Old Man Owl: [Embarrassed] Oh ho ho I-I could have done that too, heh heh heh.

[Door opens revealing the shadow of Sonic and Tails on the plane: the Tornado. Tree leaves begin to open, like doors, revealing the launch ramp of the plane. The Tornado is preparing for flight.]

Sonic: Old man! Take care of the place while we're gone!

Old Man Owl: Of course! You can count on me!

Sonic: [Sarcastically] Sure we can... [to Tails] Start her up Tails!

Tails: Right!

[Tails starts up Tornado for launch, and Tornado flies away.]

Old Man Owl: [laughing] Bon voyage kids! Hah hah hah hah hah ahhhh...

[Scene Change: Presidential House.]

Sonic: Mr. President, what's the urgent business?

Robotnik: [Laughs] It's been a long time, hasn't it? Good to see you again, Sonic!

Tails: Doctor Robotnik!

Robotnik: Please accept this small token of my gratitude for your coming all this way to see me...

[Cannons appear; Sonic and Tails destroy the robots at super speed. The robots poof into pink smoke.]

Sonic: That's a funny way to thank us!

[Sonic zooms towards Robotnik.]

President: Sonic, stop! Sonic, for the sake of my daughter and everyone else, listen to him!

Sonic: That's a dirty trick, Robotnik.

[Robotnik chuckles.]

Tails: No fair! You kidnapped the President and Sara so you could hold them for ransom and take over South Island, didn't you?

[Robotnik laughs and bounces off his chair.]

Robotnik: Do you think I'm capable of something that underhanded? Me?

Everyone, including Robotnik's robots: Yes!

[Robotnik faints.]

Robotnik: Hublrublublublublru!

[Robotnik gets back up.]

Robotnik: Now Sonic, I've got the upper hand. This is about the entire planet of Freedom so you'd better do what I say!

Sonic: No way!

Robotnik: Don't you care about pretty young Sara? [chuckles]

Sara: Help me, daddy!

President: Little Sara! Sonic, please listen to whatever Robotnik has to say!

Sonic: Oh all right. Give me the scoop Robotnik.

Robotnik: Thank you, Sonic. I will. [Forms a hologram of Planet Freedom] As you both well know, Planet Freedom is made up of two separate dimensions. The outer world, the one you live in is known as the Land of the Sky.

Sonic: Tell us something we don't know.

Robotnik: [grow/s] Shut up! Heed me! And the inner layer is known as the Land of Darkness. There I lived peacefully in a utopian city called Robotropolis, until Metal Robotnik came out of nowhere and attacked my peaceful city with a battalion of demonic robots. They conquered us and drove me out of my home. Metal Robotnik then sabotaged the Robot Generator that created the high voltage electricity for the entire city. It is running uncontrollably and there is no place to store this excess electricity. According to my calculations, if the Robot Generator isn't stopped by sunrise tomorrow, there will be a giant explosion. Huh?

[The President, Sara, the robots, Sonic, and Tails have all fallen asleep.]

Robotnik: Fine! Just don't blame me when this happens!

[Robotnik pops the hologram of Planet Freedom, and a comical explosion occurs. Afterward, Robotnik is covered with soot and dust.]

President: How can we stop this terrible thing from happening, Robotnik?

Robotnik: There's only one thing to do: someone has to get through Metal Robotnik's traps, go into Robotropolis and stop that generator before sunrise! And it should be the fastest one here.

Sonic: Forget about it. You created that stupid thing in the first place, why should I have to go around cleaning up your messes?

[The President is shocked, shoves Robotnik away, and runs to Sonic.]

President: Oh no! Sonic, please do it. You're the only one here that can save South Island and the entire Planet Freedom.

Sonic: [Annoyed] Mmm...

[Sara runs to Sonic.]

Sara: Sonic, I don't care what happens to Robotnik or daddy, but please just do this for the two of us?

[Sonic hops out of the desk.]

Sonic: Someone tell me why I should trust Robotnik when 99 out of 100 times he's lying!

Tails: But what if this is that one other time?

Sonic: Huh?

Sara: Please, Sonic?

President: Please, Sonic.

Sonic: Fine! I'll do it.

Tails: Sonic?

Robotnik: You need to take this with you, Tails. It's a Navigator. As long as you have that with you it should take you to Robotropolis, using the shortest and fastest route.

Tails: Thank you Robotnik.

Sonic: Come on! Let's go!

Tails: Mmm!

[Sonic and Tails run off.]

[Scene Change: Sky.]

[Sonic and Tails are flying in the Tornado.]

Sonic: Tails, do you actually trust that ridiculous little gadget that Robotnik built for you? He's not exactly trustworthy. He could've put a bomb for us in there!

Tails: But Doctor Robotnik is the only person who knows where Robotropolis is, so we have to use his navigator and hope it works.

Sonic: I guess so...

Tails: Gee, I hope the President and Sara are doing all right.

[Scene Change: Presidential House.]

[Robotnik and Sara are playing a fighting based video game, and Robotnik wins.]

Sara: No no no no no, it's not fair! You always beat me every time! All right, one more.

Robotnik: Just give up, we've played a hundred times!

Sara: I'll stop being your hostage...

Robotnik: All right, start it again...

[Scene Change: Sky.]

[Sonic and Tails are still flying on the Tornado.]

[Scene Change: Presidential House.]

[There is a rematch battle between Robotnik and Sara. Robotnik wins again.]

Sara: No no, you beat me again! I can't win this stupid game! Fine!

Robotnik: [Grow/s]

Sara: I quit!

[Robotnik grunts and falls on the floor.]

Sara: I wanna go for a drive!

Robotnik: Absolutely not!

Sara: No no I want to! Take me on a drive now!

[An explosion occurs, and a weird machine appears]

President: Oh. What is this?

Sara: Yahoo! Yeah! This is great, Robotnik! I get to drive first!

[Robotnik chuckles.]

Robotnik: No Sara, don't touch it! Wait, stop! Don't play with it! Stop it Sara!

[A robot holds up a sign saying "Goodbye Sara!!"]

President: No! Stop! Come back Sara!

[Scene Change: Sky.]

[Sonic and Tails are still flying on the Tornado; flying by clouds]

Sonic: Woah-! Look! That must be the entrance to the Land of Darkness, right below us!

Tails: We're hitting some rough winds here! I'm having trouble keeping it steady! Hang on Sonic!

[Tails flies the Tornado higher in the sky and towards the Land of Darkness. Sonic begins to lose his grip, but still tries to hang on for dear life.]

Tails: Keep hanging on, we're almost through!

Sonic: Good!

[Sonic struggles to keep holding on, as they crash land the plane on the surface. Sonic crawls out from under the plane.]

Sonic: Hey Tails! Tails, are you all right?

[Tails begins to crawl out from under the plane.]

Tails: I'm fine, but I'm worried about the Tornado though.

[Sonic and Tails both gasp. They have made it to the Land of Darkness.]

Sonic: The Land of Darkness...

Tails: That means Robotropolis is just on the other side of those mountains!

Sonic: Then let's go!

[Scene Change: Land of Darkness.]

[Sonic and Tails are running around in the Land of Darkness jumping over spikes and onto a green bouncepad, and spots some enemies along the way. Sonic breaks through a Crawlton. While the sun is seen shining on the island, a swarm of Buzz Bombers chase after them and shoot orbs. Tails screams as they both try to dodge the orbs.]

Sonic: Tails, something's wrong here. I bet Robotnik probably picked the route with the most traps for us!

Tails: But this really is the most direct way. There should even be a Warp Zone coming right ahead of us!

Sonic: Let's do it!

[Sonic and Tails enter the warp Zone]

[Scene Change: Warp Zone.]

[Sonic and Tails move through the warp Zone.]

[Scene Change: Ancient Relics.]

[Sonic and Tails emerge from the warp zone and are out of breath.]

Sonic: What does it say about this place?

Tails: We just exited the warp zone, so according to the navigator, these are the Ancient Relics.

Sonic: Ancient Relics? These? I never knew that the Land of Darkness looked anything like this.

Tails: But Robotropolis is supposed to be really close by. Let's go somewhere high up and see if we can see it from there.

Sonic: Good idea.

[Sonic and Tails speed to the top of a skyscraper.]

Sonic: Look! The Relics are sinking right into the ocean.

Tails: Sonic! I bet it's because the Robot Generator is out of control and causing reactions under the ground!

Sonic: Right, we should hurry!

[Lightning strikes and Tails screams.]

Tails: I'm afraid of lightning!

[Scene Change: Ancient Relics.]

[Sonic and Tails are running on the street.]

Sonic: Tails, we just have to go straight ahead. Right?

Tails: That's what the navigator says...

[A spark of light appears, then an explosion occurs.]

Sonic and Tails: Daaaaa...oh!

[Sonic and Tails are impacted by the explosion and land on the ground. Metal Robotnik appears and starts to laugh. Metal Robotnik's laughter starts to increase. He continues laughing maniacally. Tails screams.]

Tails: That thing's Metal Robotnik!

Metal Robotnik: [Laughs] That is correct, I am Metal Robotnik. Congratulations on your prowess in navigating through my traps.

Sonic: We don't have time to play little games with you. Get out of our way!

Metal Robotnik: It's not going to be that easy!

[Sonic and Tails begin taunting Metal Robotnik while he is shooting.]

Metal Robotnik: Hold still!

[Sonic kicks Metal Robotnik's head, but gets stunned.]

Metal Robotnik: You can't break through this polymer alloy!

[Tails hugs Metal Robotnik's face and move back to ground in a flash. Metal Robotnik punches himself in the face. Sonic and Tails laugh at him.]

Metal Robotnik: I'll get you!

[Metal Robotnik continues shooting. Sonic and Tails hide behind a building.]

Metal Robotnik: You can't hide from me... Come here!

Sonic: We don't have enough time to mess around with some robot! Where's Robotropolis from here?

Tails: Just a second... That way! Just past that highway.

Sonic: Good! Let's go Tails!

Tails: Let's do it Sonic!

Sonic: Robotnik!

Metal Robotnik: Huh?

Sonic: We have some business to take care of, but we can finish this game when we get back. Huh?

[Metal Robotnik becomes stronger, ripping off his cape and pulls out wings with a rocket launcher.]

Sonic and Tails: Oh no! Jump!

[Metal Robotnik crashes into a bridge and chases after Sonic and Tails.]

Sonic: I didn't know that thing could fly!

[Sonic and Tails run away from Metal Robotnik while running in a tunnel. Metal Robotnik almost captures Tails.]

Tails: Sonic! Help me!

Sonic: Tails, grab onto me!

Tails: Right! Heh heh! WHOA!

[Metal Robotnik launches homing missiles at Sonic and Tails, but each of them miss. Sonic and Tails stop by the end of the bridge, which is out. Tails pulls Sonic off the edge and both are out of breath.]

Sonic: That was close!

[A shadow approaches them. It is Metal Robotnik again.]

Metal Robotnik: [Laughs] Don't think you're safe yet, I'm well aware that neither one of you can swim!

[Metal Robotnik is shooting as Sonic and Tails fall off the bridge and splash into the river. Sonic and Tails are hanging onto the grating and acting as if they are drowning.]

Metal Robotnik: [Laughs] Now I've finally gotten those two out of the way...

Tails: [Gasps] I think it worked!

Sonic: Yeah! Let's go!

[Lightning strikes again; Tails screams and clings to Sonic.]

Sonic: Aw, man.

Metal Robotnik: I can see you!

[Tails screams in terror.]

Metal Robotnik: You didn't think I'd fall for a stupid trick like that, did you?

[Sonic and Tails run as Metal Robotnik is shooting yellow goop at them.]

Sonic: What is this stuff?

[Metal Robotnik continues shooting. Tails dodges the goop, then lightning strikes. Tails is cooped onto the fence.]

Tails: Help, Sonic!

Sonic: Tails!

Metal Robotnik: [Chuckles] Say cheese! [Laughs]

[Metal Robotnik shoots mines at Sonic, then a humongous explosion occurs. Knuckles appears digging up from the ground and sees the explosion.]

Knuckles: Huh?

Metal Robotnik: Now you're the only one left to take care of...

Tails: There's no way you could've gotten rid of Sonic that easily with those missiles.

[A small light sparks from afar.]

Tails: I told you!

[Sonic is riding on the mine.]

Sonic: Not so fast, Metal Robotnik!

[Metal Robotnik is shocked and bashes the missile into Metal Robotnik.]

Tails: Sonic, look!

Sonic: This is bad!

[A damage Metal Robotnik approaches them as the ground begins to crumble down. Meanwhile, Sonic discovers that his feet are glued to the pavement, which is sinking into the sea.]

Sonic: Uh oh.

Metal Robotnik: You might have the fastest feet in the world, but now you're just a normal hedgehog! I'll make sure you never make it to Robotropolis... [Laughs]

Tails: Sonic! I can save you!

[Metal Robotnik is about to shoot his laser at Sonic, but something stops him from firing the laser. Knuckles flies to Tails and gets the goop off.]

Tails: Huh? Knuckles!

Knuckles: Hurry and save Sonic!

[Tails falls off, but his two tails are still glued together.]

Tails: This is bad! I can't fly with my tails stuck together! That's it! Sonic, I'm coming!

Metal Robotnik: How did you escape!

Tails: Come on Sonic, I know you can do it!

Knuckles: Now I'm stuck!

Metal Robotnik: Rrrr! Out of bullets! You are lucky aren't you, but not lucky enough! [Laughs] Hey!

Sonic: Thanks a lot pal, I owe you one!

Knuckles: I think we're even.

Metal Robotnik: Heh heh. It doesn't matter...

Sonic: Trying to run away? I won't let you Metal Robotnik!

Metal Robotnik: Don't worry, we'll meet again soon! [Laughs]

Knuckles: Sonic, grab a hold! There!

[Sonic attacks Metal Robotnik with the aid of Knuckles. Metal Robotnik explodes.]

Sonic: My...man...cool!

[Robotnik and Sara pop out of Metal Robotnik.]

Robotnik: Sonic better enjoy his victory now because once he gets to Robotropolis, he'll have to fight something far more evil than Metal Robotnik!

Sara: Hya!

[Sara bops Robotnik on the head.]

Sara: What do you mean worse than Metal Robotnik? Are you talking about yourself? You'd better keep your hands off my Sonic or I'll never forgive you!

[Scene Change: Ancient Relics.]

Sonic: Thanks for saving us there Knuckles!

Knuckles: Yeah! That's one more job I won't get paid for, but I've known you for a while. So I'll just put it on your tab, and you can pay me back later on.

Tails: So are you going back to treasure hunting now?

Knuckles: Of course! Finding treasure is my absolute favorite pass time! Ha.

Sonic, Tails and Knuckles: Huh?

[The sun begins to set.]

Tails: The sun's already setting, we're starting to run out of time!

[Knuckles puts on his sunglasses.]

Knuckles: What's that? Look at it.

Tails: Wha-huh?

Sonic: Huh?

[They see the city of Robotropolis from afar.]

Tails: That must be Robotropolis!

Sonic: Scaaaary...

[Sonic, Tails, and Knuckles feel a rumble coming from the ground.]

Sonic, Tails and Knuckles: Whoa!

[Robotropolis begins to light up.]

Sonic: I hope we see you again soon Knuckles!

Knuckles: See ya!

Tails: We'll see you later Knuckles, bye!

[Knuckles takes off his sunglasses.]

Knuckles: Mmm...

[Knuckles appears.]

Tails: Wha- Knuckles!

Knuckles: Hey! I couldn't send you guys into that place alone. Let's go!

[Tails giggles.]

Knuckles: Come on! What are you waiting for? We gotta get moving or that Robot Generator's going to explode!

Sonic: Wait up, Knuckles!

Tails: Whee! Haha!

[Scene Change: Robotropolis.]

Sonic: So this must be the entrance to Robotropolis...

Tails: I never expected Robotnik to live in such an amazing place!

Knuckles: Careful, you don't wanna get too blown away.

Sonic: You're right. Come on, let's go!

[Tails checks his navigator.]

Tails: We're on the right track. Just keep going straight!

Sonic: Got it!

Knuckles: I'm getting seriously pumped up about this Sonic!

Sonic: Just don't enjoy yourself so much. You'll let your guard down.

Knuckles: I'll be fine.

[A Snail Blaster spots them.]

Knuckles: Ha ha ha! Waaaaa!

Sonic: Huh?

[Sonic, Tails, and Knuckles scream.]

Knuckles: Leave these guys to me. You go on ahead!

Sonic: All right, good luck!

[They arrive at the Robot Generator. Sonic screams as he and Tails run on a treadmill conveyor belt.]

Sonic: Tails, come on! Fly!

Tails: Oh, you're right! It's way too heavy!

[Sonic is still running on the conveyor belt.]

Knuckles: Hang on!

[Sonic presses the Robot Generator's shutdown button with one millisecond remaining. The Robot Generator stops working and the Robotropolis city lights dim out. Knuckles is running on the conveyor belt.]

Knuckles: Don't worry, I'll have you out of there in no time.

[Sonic is stuck in a green bolt of light as if he were captured. The Robot Generator falls apart and Sonic begins to fall.]

Knuckles: Gotcha!

Tails: Sonic, are you all right-

[Tails yells as an orb starts spinning and capturing energy via lightning bolts. Metal Sonic is seen in the orb.]

Knuckles: Something's moving in there!

[Metal Sonic begins to awaken. The orb explodes and Metal Sonic escapes, appearing before Sonic.]

Tails: It's a robot that looks exactly like Sonic!

Knuckles: It came out of that sphere.

[Metal Robotnik's laughter is heard via reverb.]

Metal Robotnik: And another thing... [Laughter continues]

Knuckles: What is that?

Tails: It's pretty.

[Strings of blue light appear and Metal Robotnik begins to rise from the blue lights. Metal Robotnik laughs again.]

Tails: I-I-I think it's the ghost of Metal Robotnik!

[Metal Robotnik continues laughing. It continues rising, but it's being held by Robotnik's robots. The robots begin to run away as Metal Robotnik falls and gets destroyed.]

Tails: It just broke apart.

Sara: This way! Let go of my hand.

Robotnik: I'm sorry.

Sara: [yell/s] Watch it!

Sonic: Huh?

[Sara pulls on a side of Robotnik's mustache.]

Sonic: Sara!

Tails: What are Sara and Robotnik doing out here together!?

Knuckles: I get it! So you two were both Metal Robotnik.

[Robotnik gets embarrassed while Sara starts whimpering and then she cries.]

Tails: Look at that, Knuckles. Now you made her cry.

Sara: No, it wasn't my fault! Metal Robotnik and the Robot Generator going haywire were all part of Robotnik's evil scheme.

Sonic: So what about this plot, Robotnik?

[Robotnik hops out of the remains of Metal Robotnik and begins to make faces at Sonic.]

Robotnik: You fell for my trap! You came all the way here, and now you'll die here. Good job Sonic!

Sonic: What did you say?

[Sonic rushes to Robotnik, but Metal Sonic appears and stops him.]

Tails: This is terrible!

Robotnik: I, Doctor Robotnik, scientist extraordinaire, have finally completed my greatest invention ever. I call it the Hyper Metal Sonic.

Tails: That robot may look like him, but he'll never be a match for the real Sonic!

Robotnik: [Laughs] Tails, this should be apparent to you. Sonic wasn't being electrocuted earlier. Instead I was extracting his life data and collecting all the information essential to my creation. Now, Hyper Metal Sonic is ready!

Sara: What are you planning to do with a stupid fake Sonic anyway?

Robotnik: I'm going to use Metal to destroy the real Sonic, and then I can completely destroy the Land of the Sky!

Sara: What did you say? There's no way you'll ever get away with this!

[A random Robotnik robot appears. Sara screams.]

Sonic: Release Sara now, Robotnik!

Robotnik: [Chuckles] Ah, but first you must fight him. Go get him, Hyper Metal Sonic!

Sonic: Everybody stand back. Nobody try to help me. I have to destroy this imposter!

[Metal Sonic revs up and starts his rocket.]

Robotnik: Wooooaah!

[Sonic dodges Metal Sonic's attack.]

Knuckles: Man he's fast! I've never seen anything able to keep up with Sonic!

[Sara is tied up and scared, while Robotnik is excited and laughing.]

Robotnik: Finally I have an invention that will mark my place in history forever and give me the recognition I deserve!

[Metal Sonic attacks Sonic.]

Tails: I think Sonic's in trouble!

[Sonic looks faint as Metal Sonic catches Sonic by the leg and seals both of them in an energy shield.]

Robotnik: Huhehe! Goooooooo Metal!

[Metal Sonic begins to escape Robotropolis. Tails screams.]

Knuckles: Wait, Tails! Come back here!

[Knuckles grabs Tails by the ankle.]

Knuckles: Tails! Hold up!

Tails: But if we don't hurry up, then-

Knuckles: Calm down! There's no way that either one of us is going to be able to chase him down like this, so we've got to think of another way to catch them.

Tails: Hmm.

Tails and Knuckles: Huh?

[A sharp rock hurdles toward Tails and Knuckles. They scream as they fly away as the rock lands at the base of Robotropolis.]

Knuckles: He did say he wanted to destroy the Land of the Sky, didn't he?

Robotnik: I'm sorry, were the ropes uncomfortable Sara? Come on, don't be mad. Stay with me for a little longer.

Sara: No, I don't want to. I wanna go home now!

Robotnik: Awwwww, but I was just about to show you something that's really spectacular.

[Sonic and Metal Sonic are still battling.]

Sonic: :[Inner thoughts] Where did he go? Huh?

[Metal Sonic comes toward him.]

Sonic: Daah!

[Metal Sonic kicks Sonic off the mountain top he is on, and Sonic appears to have died.]

Robotnik: Looks like that's it! [Chuckles, then laughs] Sonic will never again be a pain in my egg!

Knuckles: Tails! What are you doing? There's a warp zone right in front of us!

Tails: We're picking up the Tornado and going home!

Knuckles: What!? What are we gonna do about Sonic!?

[Scene Change: Sonic and Tails' island.]

Old Man Owl: What a perfect night for lying on the beach.

[Metal Sonic appears from a distance in shadows.]

Old Man Owl: Ah, Master Sonic! I wasn't expecting you back so soon. Master Sonic? Is there something wrong? Wait, what are you doing!? Stop!!

[Scene Change: Forest area.]

[A leaf droplet lands on Sonic and awakes him.]

Sonic: Where in the world am I? :[Inner thoughts] I remember leaving Robotropolis...

[Sonic gets a vision of Metal Sonic attacking.]

Sonic: I know! I've got to stop Metal!

[Scene Change: President's control center.]

[The President sees the City in flames.]

President: :[Inner thoughts] Could this be the work of Metal Robotnik?

[Scene Change: Sonic and Tails' island.]

Knuckles: Oh no! The only person who would do something this terrible is Robotnik. It's a lucky thing no one was staying here.

Tails: Mmhmm.

[Tails gets shocked]

Tails: The Old Man was staying here watching the house!! Old man! Old man, where are you?

Knuckles: It doesn't look like anyone's even been in here.

Tails: Old man, are you still in here somewhere?

Old Man Owl: I'm behind you Tails. You've come home early!

Tails: Those are Sonic's favorite clothes, so don't blame me if he gets mad at you.

Old Man Owl: Don't worry about it! He was here last night. He forced me to put on these clothes and then flew away without saying anything! [Laughs]

Tails and Knuckles: He flew away? Metal!

[Scene Change: Sky.]

Robotnik: [Laughs] Metal is doing a great job! At this rate, the Land of the Sky will only last a few more hours. Now I can take my plan to the next stage. Here you go Sara.

This is a present I got for you.

Sara: Woohoo! I love it!

[Scene Change: Sonic and Tails' island.]

Knuckles: Tails, stop tinkering with that thing. We've got more important things to do, like finding Sonic.

Tails: Metal Sonic and Robotnik's navigator are built out of the same kind of parts. I think I can use that to our advantage. I just have to make this work.

Knuckles: I get it. Do you think you could actually find them? But what if Metal Sonic and Sonic aren't in the same place anymore?

Tails: Don't worry. Sonic and Metal will definitely be in the same place!

Knuckles: Huh. I don't get it! How can you be sure of that?

Tails: Because Metal was programmed with all of Sonic's data. He knows everything: His likes, his dislikes, his personality and all his thoughts. That's why he knew to come down here, and he even gave the Old Man his favorite clothes!

Knuckles: But Metal's a robot. He's not really Sonic!

Tails: It doesn't matter that he's a robot, he's still operating completely through all of Sonic's thoughts. He knows everything that Sonic's ever felt or seen. The same goes for Sonic. In other words, they're like identical twins!

Knuckles: They're twins? Huh.

[Scene Change: President's control center.]

News Reporter: Greenlake City has been flooded. Forest Town is currently on fire!

President's Aide: [nervous] Mr President, we've found something. You need to see this!

President: It's Sonic! B-but that's impossible!

President's Aide: Uh.

President: Get Sonic's house on the line immediately!

President's Aide: Sure.

[Scene Change: Sonic and Tails' island.]

[A radio signal is coming from Sonic's house. Knuckles is fixing the Tornado.]

Knuckles: Shut up, I'm busy! Hey, is someone gonna pick that up!?

[Scene Change: President's control center.]

President: Tails, answer that! Isn't anybody there-

Old Man Owl: [Singing] Owl and the red box, kick it outgo!

President: D'oh, no it's that idiot! What's he doing now!?

Old Man Owl: [Singing] ...Owl and the red box, check it out, yo!

President: Hey! This is the President, you listen to me right now-

Knuckles: Stop yelling, who is this?

President: Who are you!?

Knuckles: I'm Knuckles. I'm Sonic's best friend!

President: I see! Is Sonic there? Is Sara safe? What happened to Metal Robotnik? And the generator?

Knuckles: Does anybody around here care that I have work to do?

Old Man Owl: Hiya, Pres!

Knuckles: Huh!?

[Scene Change: Sky.]

Sara: Robotnik, don't you think I look cute?

Robotnik: Mmm hmm. It suits you very well.

Sara: Why did you give me a wedding dress?

Robotnik: What do you mean? Once Metal has destroyed the Land of the Sky, we'll be the only ones left. Then we can get married, and live out the rest of our happy lives together Sara.

[Sara fantasizes her and Robotnik starting a family.]

Robotnik and Sara: [Singing] Rock-a-by robot, on the egg-top...

Sara: Are you crazy!? I wouldn't marry you if you were the last man on Earth! Rrrrrrrr!

[Scene Change: President's control center.]

President: So that's what really happened. Even with all of Sonic's data that creature still can't destroy the Land of the Sky, can he?

Knuckles: It's possible...

President: Wha?

Knuckles: I've traveled the subterranean levels of this planet and I know them better than anyone. I've seen firsthand what his target is going to be, and it's at the northernmost tip of this continent. The Land of the Sky is held together by a huge glacier which joins the continents. Beneath the continents lie rivers of magma that spread all over the continent like blood vessels. If the tip of the glacier was punctured by an explosion, the magma would rush to the surface, melting all the ice! The very backbone of our Planet Freedom would be shattered! The rotation of the planet would hurl the continents into outer space, where they would be blown to pieces.

President: Oh...this is impossible.

Tails: Sir, please don't tell Sonic anything about what we just told you.

President: I know that!

Sonic: Why shouldn't you tell me?

Knuckles: Sonic!

Tails: Aah!

President: Oh Sonic, you're safe! Good!

Sonic: You're too late! I already heard all of it.

Tails: Sonic, you don't understand. This is bad!

News Reporter: Metal Sonic is heading northward at top speed!

President: What!?

Sonic: [Gasps]

President: Metal is planning to melt the glaciers to the north! We have to stop him at any cost! Huh? Sonic?

[Scene Change: Sonic and Tails' island.]

President: Tails! Sonic just disappeared from here. He must have gone after Metal on his own!

Tails and Knuckles: That's bad!

President: We'll have to do our best too. We have to stop Metal no matter what!

[Scene Change: Sky.]

Robotnik: [laughs] We're going to the North Pole! That means Metal has finally found the point of destruction. You should get ready now Sara...

Sara: No no no! I don't wanna get married on the North pole! [screams]

Robotnik: Calm down. Be quiet, buckle up and hang on; we're hitting a warp zone!

[Scene Change: Sky.]

Tails: All right! Now we can go into Metal's memory banks and adjust them so Sonic's personality comes out!

Knuckles: Hey Tails! Are you sure you can trust that thing? After all it was built by Robotnik before he gave it to you.

Tails: Don't worry about it. Just keep your eyes peeled for Sonic!

Knuckles: I know what to do.

[Scene Change: North Pole.]

[Sonic arrives at the North Pole.]

Sonic: Hmm. I got here too late! Metal has to still be around here somewhere... Daah!?

[Metal Sonic appears from underneath the ground.]

Sonic: So now we can get down to the real fight! The last Sonic standing will be the winner.

[Electronic noises are heard from Metal.]

Sonic: What? This world isn't big enough for the both of us, and one of us has to go?

[Electronic noises are heard from Metal, who nods.]

Sonic: Well, I agree!

[Sonic and Metal Sonic begin to battle as they end up hurdling toward each other.]

Sonic: You might know everything that I'm going to do, but that's not going to help you, since I know everything you're going to do. Strange, isn't it? Grrrrrrrr.

[Robotnik and Sara arrive as Metal Sonic bashes into the Egg Mobile. Sonic lands on the tip of the Egg Mobile and hurts his groin.]

Sonic: Ooh!

Robotnik: Ooh? Oh no! How is it that you're still alive, Sonic? Wha? What's wrong with you? What are you doing?

Sara: Bad, bad! No, no, no, no! Don't look there, you pervert!

Robotnik: I get it. You're synchronizing yourself with Metal. Then this is my chance!

[Robotnik holds on to the ship as Sara falls.]

Sonic: I'll save you!

Robotnik: Oh no, little Sara!

Knuckles: Whoops! Gotcha! That was close.

Sonic: Hey Knuckles!

Tails: Soooooonic!

Sonic: Huh?

[Tails pilots the Tornado and saves Sonic.]

Robotnik: [Growls] You're a perfect target for me now, fox!

[Animal missiles (one a rabbit and the other a turtle) appear as ammunition for the Egg Mobile.]

Robotnik: Steady, ready, careful, fire!

[The rabbit missile aims at Tails. He screams as the rabbit missile destroys the Tornado.]

Robotnik: Yes! Huh?

[The turtle missile slowly moves through the air.]

Robotnik: Oh no, another design failure! More importantly, what happened to Sara?

Sara: Ah ha ha ha ha! Oh you saved me! Ah ha ha ha! Thank you Mister Mole!

Tails: [screams] Somebody stop me!

Sara: Ah ha ha ha ha ha! I have more power than I thought I did!

Robotnik: There you are Sara! It's time for you to come with me now. Ow! Oooh!

Knuckles: Tails! Get off!

Tails: I'm so sorry.

Knuckles: I never thought you'd stoop that low.

[Metal Sonic attacks them.]

Knuckles: Look! Metal's still going!

Tails: Sonic too!

[Metal Sonic continues to beat up Sonic.]

Sara: Metal! Stop it!

[Sonic kicks Metal Sonic into the ground, and the ice begins to crumble. Tails, Knuckles, and Sara are screaming in horror.]

Tails: If that ice bridge gets destroyed, then we're doomed! Knuckles, stop the lava!

Knuckles: Uhh...I...dunno..

Sara: Would you try it for me, brave man?

[Sara kisses Knuckles on the cheek.]

Knuckles: Right! Yes ma'am!

[Knuckles bashes into the ice with lava hurdling toward him. Tails and Sara are cheering Knuckles on.]

Knuckles: Huh? My hat's on fire! Help!

[Sonic collapses to the ground. Sara and Tails gasp. Sonic struggles to get up while Metal Sonic kicks Sonic on the head and slides into the icy wall. Metal Sonic then grabs Sonic and chokes him.]

Sara: No, Sonic! What are you doing to my Sonic! Rrrr, this stupid thing looks like Sonic, but it's bad!

Tails: I think I've got it! This plan had better work...

[Sara continues kicking Metal Sonic.]

Sara: I'm not gonna let you destroy the Land of the Sky... Grrrrr; 'cause then I'll have to marry Robotnik!

Tails: Come on! That's it!

[Metal Sonic starts to go haywire.]

Tails: Get him now Sonic!

Sonic: Right!

[Sonic Spin Dashes into Metal Sonic.]

Sonic: Okay.

Tails: Sonic!

Sonic: Good work Tails, you saved us!

Tails: [Chuckles]

Sonic: Who is that?

Tails: It doesn't look like Robotnik's ship.

Sara: That's daddy's rocket!

Sonic: What did you say!?

[The President and Old Man Owl are in the rocket. The President is trying to get out of the rocket.]

Sonic: What's wrong? I think the door's stuck!

Tails: That's bad! The heat from the lava could make it explode!

Sonic: Sara, you wait here. Come on, let's go!

[The rocket gets on fire, and the President is terrified.]

Sara: Daddy?

Sonic: The President's timing couldn't be worse.

Tails: If that thing explodes, then we'll all be in trouble!

[Metal Sonic attacks Sonic and Tails.]

Tails: It's Metal!

Sonic: Step aside and let us through, Metal. We've got to get to that ship! Tails!

Tails: Sonic! You get the President out of that ship and I'll take care of Robotnik!

[A laser is shot at Tails' navigator.]

Sonic: Robotnik!

Robotnik: Trying to overload Metal's system by assimilating Sonic's personality? Impressive! Luckily, you're too late to be a problem. Metal, destroy Sonic!

[Metal Sonic kicks Sonic into the Egg Mobile. Sonic moves away as Metal Sonic rams into the Egg Mobile. Knuckles pops up from the side of the ice wall.]

Knuckles: Aah!

[Sonic is running on the said wall. Knuckles pops up of one of the holes.]

Knuckles: Aah!

[Sonic hops over the said hole running away from Metal Sonic. Sonic hops on Knuckles' head. Knuckles has a bump on his head and gives Sonic a thumbs down.]

Tails: Hurry! Hurry up!

[The President's rocket explodes.]

Sara: Daddy!

Sonic: Mr. President! Can you hear me?

[Metal Sonic is carrying the President and Old Man Owl.]

Tails: Sonic!

Knuckles: Sonic, are you all right?

Sonic: Metal!

[Metal Sonic drops the President and Old Man Owl. A crater piece hits Metal Sonic.]

Sonic: No!

Tails: Don't do it, Sonic! What are doing!? Stop! Sonic!!

[Sonic hangs on to the slanting rock and Metal climbs his way up to Sonic.]

Sonic: Grab ahold of my hand!

Knuckles: Wait! Don't do it Sonic, he'll drag you under with him!

[Metal Sonic is about to take Sonic's hand, but slaps it away.]

Sonic: Huh?

Metal Sonic: [Monotone] There is only one Sonic.

Sonic: No! Metal!

Knuckles: Don't do it Sonic!

[Metal Sonic sinks into the lava and melts.]

Sonic: METAL!

[Scene Change: North Pole.]

Sara: Come on, don't look so sad, Sonic. It's not like you at all.

Tails: She's right, you should be happy! Thanks to you, the planet was saved!

[Robotnik laughs.]

Everyone but Robotnik: Oh no!

Robotnik: You're all fools! I still have all of Sonic's data here! Next time I'll build an even stronger Metal, that won't be handicapped by Sonic's personality, and then I will take over the entire planet!

[Robotnik laughs as the turtle missile pants back to the Egg Mobile.]

Robotnik: It must be very humbling to be in the presence of such a great scientific mind!

[The turtle missile grabs Robotnik's backup disc.]

Robotnik: Hey, what are you doing? [screams]

[The turtle missile explodes and everyone else laughs.]

President: It's finally over. Thank goodness everything's all right.

Knuckles: Almost! Not quite!

[Knuckles hits Sonic on the head.]

Sonic: What did you do that for?

Knuckles: So now, we're finally even Sonic!

[Knuckles begins to run away.]

Sonic: What do you mean? Come back!

Tails: Sonic, wait for me! Wait for me!

Sonic: Why did you hit me?

Knuckles: I was getting you back for stepping on my head, Sonic!

Sonic: I don't remember doing that!

Knuckles: Well you did!

Sonic: Did not!

Robotnik: Not so fast! You won't get away; I'll get your data-

[The President, Sara, and Old Man Owl jump into the Egg Mobile.]

Robotnik: Aah! Get off of me!

Sara: Stop talking and drive, Robotnik. Hurry up and catch Sonic!

Robotnik: Of course I will Sara! Buckle up!

[As Sonic runs down the road with Knuckles and Tails, the rest of the cast approaches Sonic from behind in the Egg Mobile.]

Sonic: Woah! I'm getting out of here, Knuckles!

Knuckles: Hey, wait a minute! Sonic!!

[The screen turns white and displays the letters of "SONIC" in purple one by one. The screen flashes white and fades to display the letters in yellow. It fades to black before the credits roll with "Look-a-like" playing in the background.]
